

The Family that Followed God part 12

“The God of the Impossible”
Genesis 21:1-8

Genesis 21:1-8_{NLT} “Doing the Impossible”

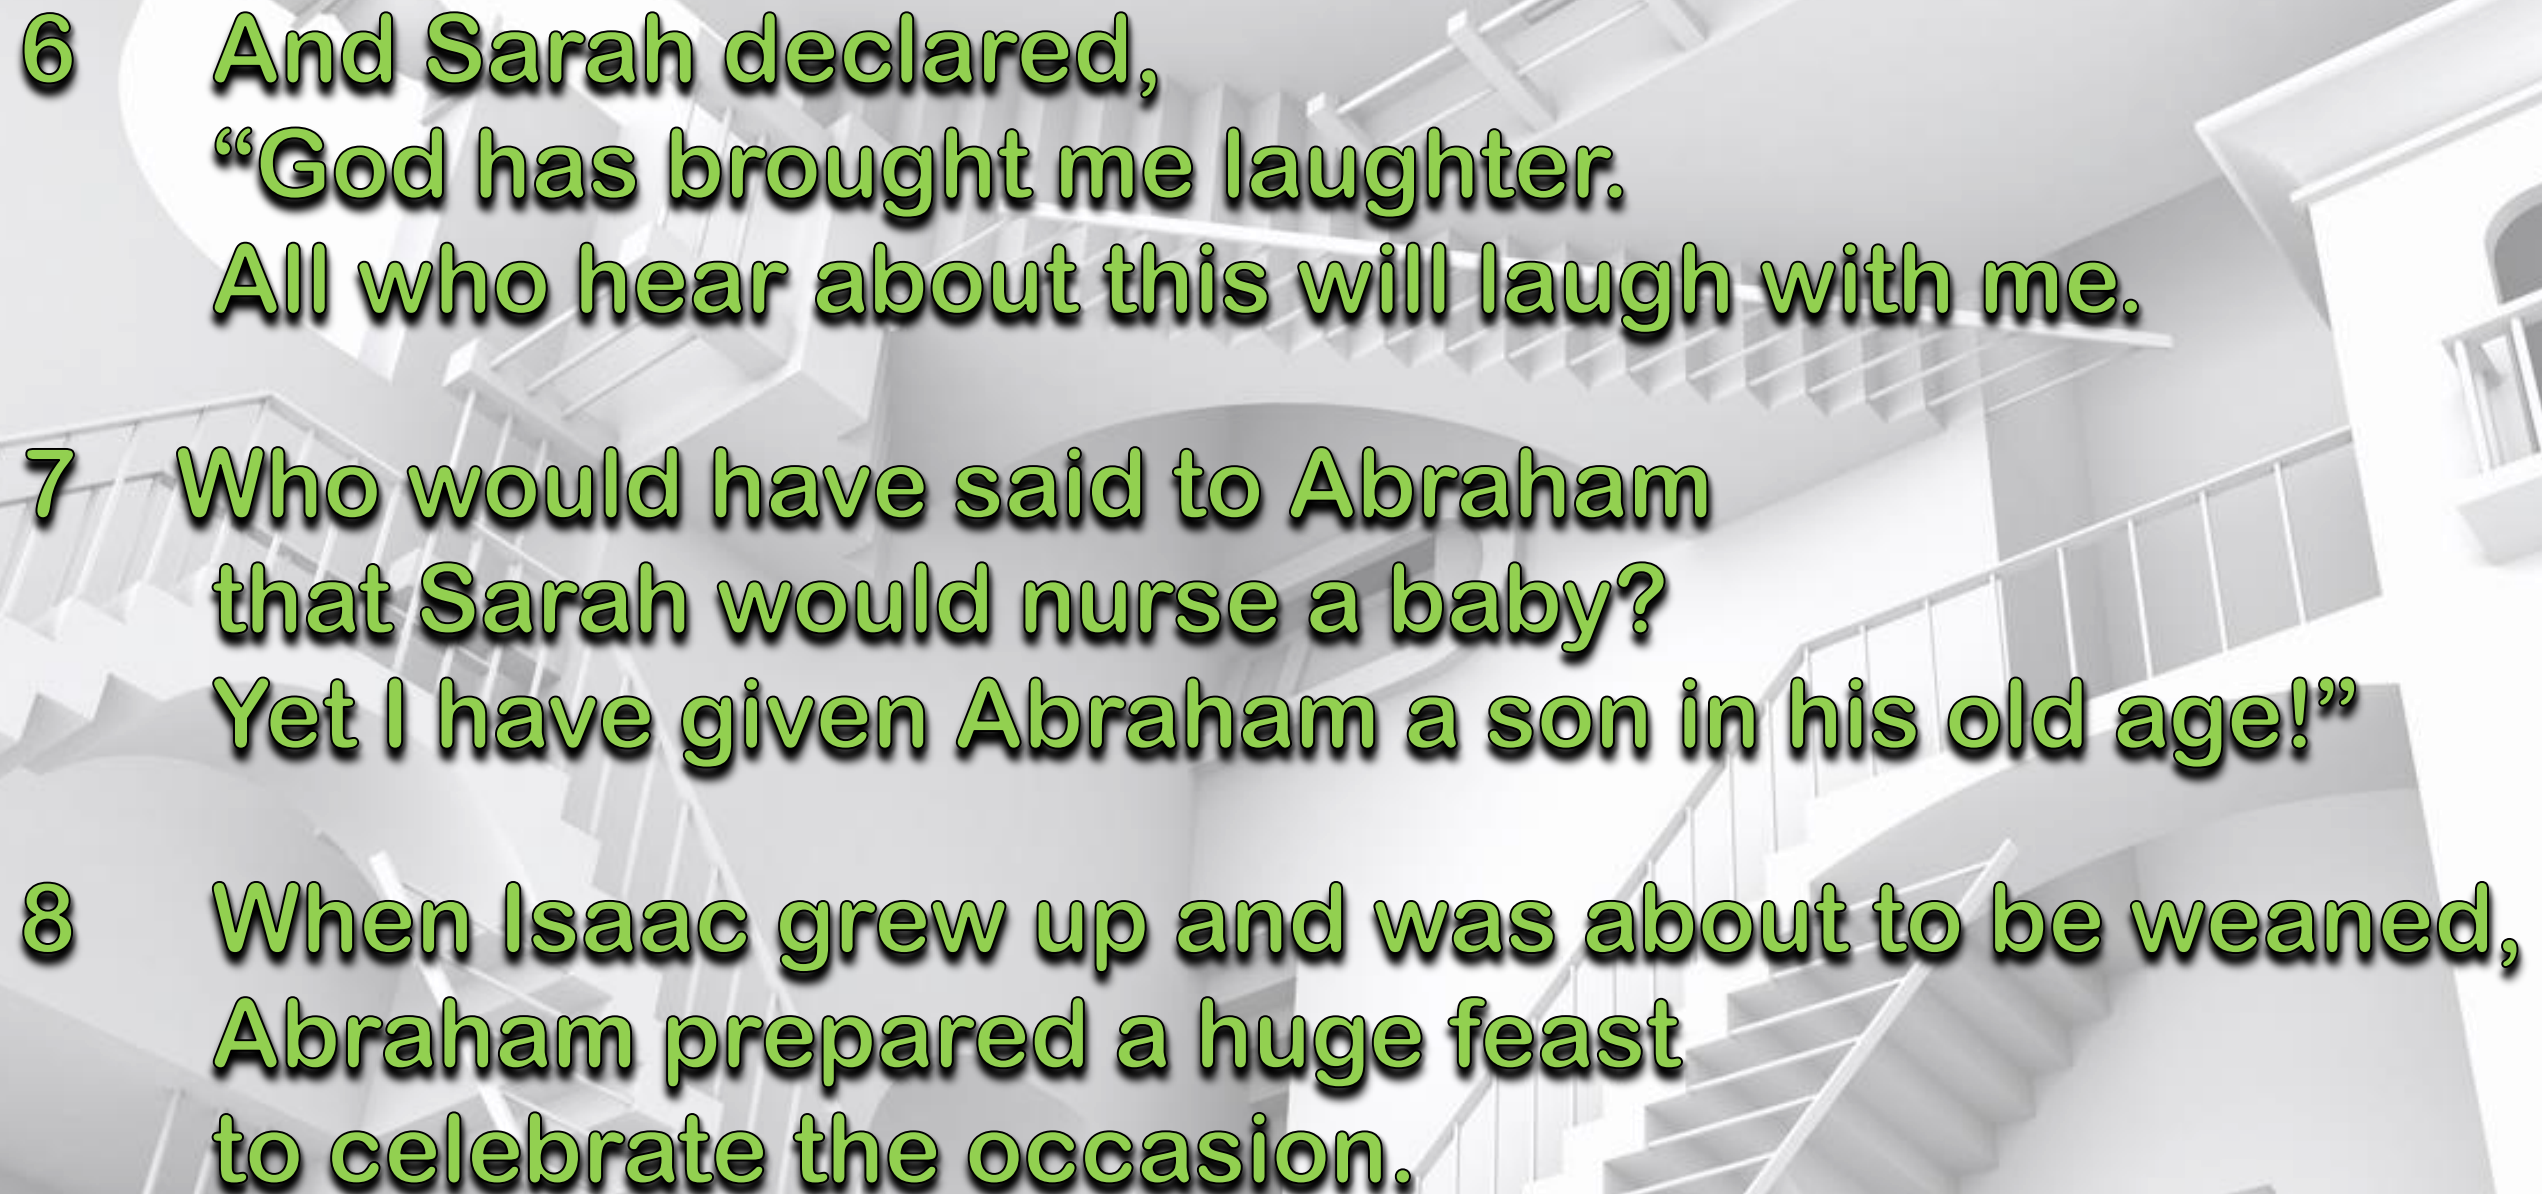

- 1 The LORD kept His word and did for Sarah exactly what He had promised.
- 2 She became pregnant, and she gave birth to a son for Abraham in his old age. This happened at just the time God had said it would.

3 And Abraham named their son Isaac.

4 Eight days after Isaac was born,
Abraham circumcised him
as God had commanded.

5 Abraham was 100 years old when Isaac was born.

-
- 6 And Sarah declared,
“God has brought me laughter.
All who hear about this will laugh with me.
- 7 Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse a baby?
Yet I have given Abraham a son in his old age!”
- 8 When Isaac grew up and was about to be weaned, Abraham prepared a huge feast to celebrate the occasion.

Doing the Impossible

To dream the impossible dream

To fight the unbeatable foe

To bear with unbearable sorrow

To run where the brave dare not go

To right the un-rightable wrong

To love pure and chaste from afar

A silhouette of a windmill stands against a vibrant sunset sky. The sky transitions from a deep purple at the top to a bright orange and red near the horizon, where the sun has set. The windmill's structure, including its cap and four lattice-like sails, is clearly visible against the colorful background. The foreground shows the dark, calm water of a canal or river, which reflects the colors of the sky. The overall mood is contemplative and inspiring.

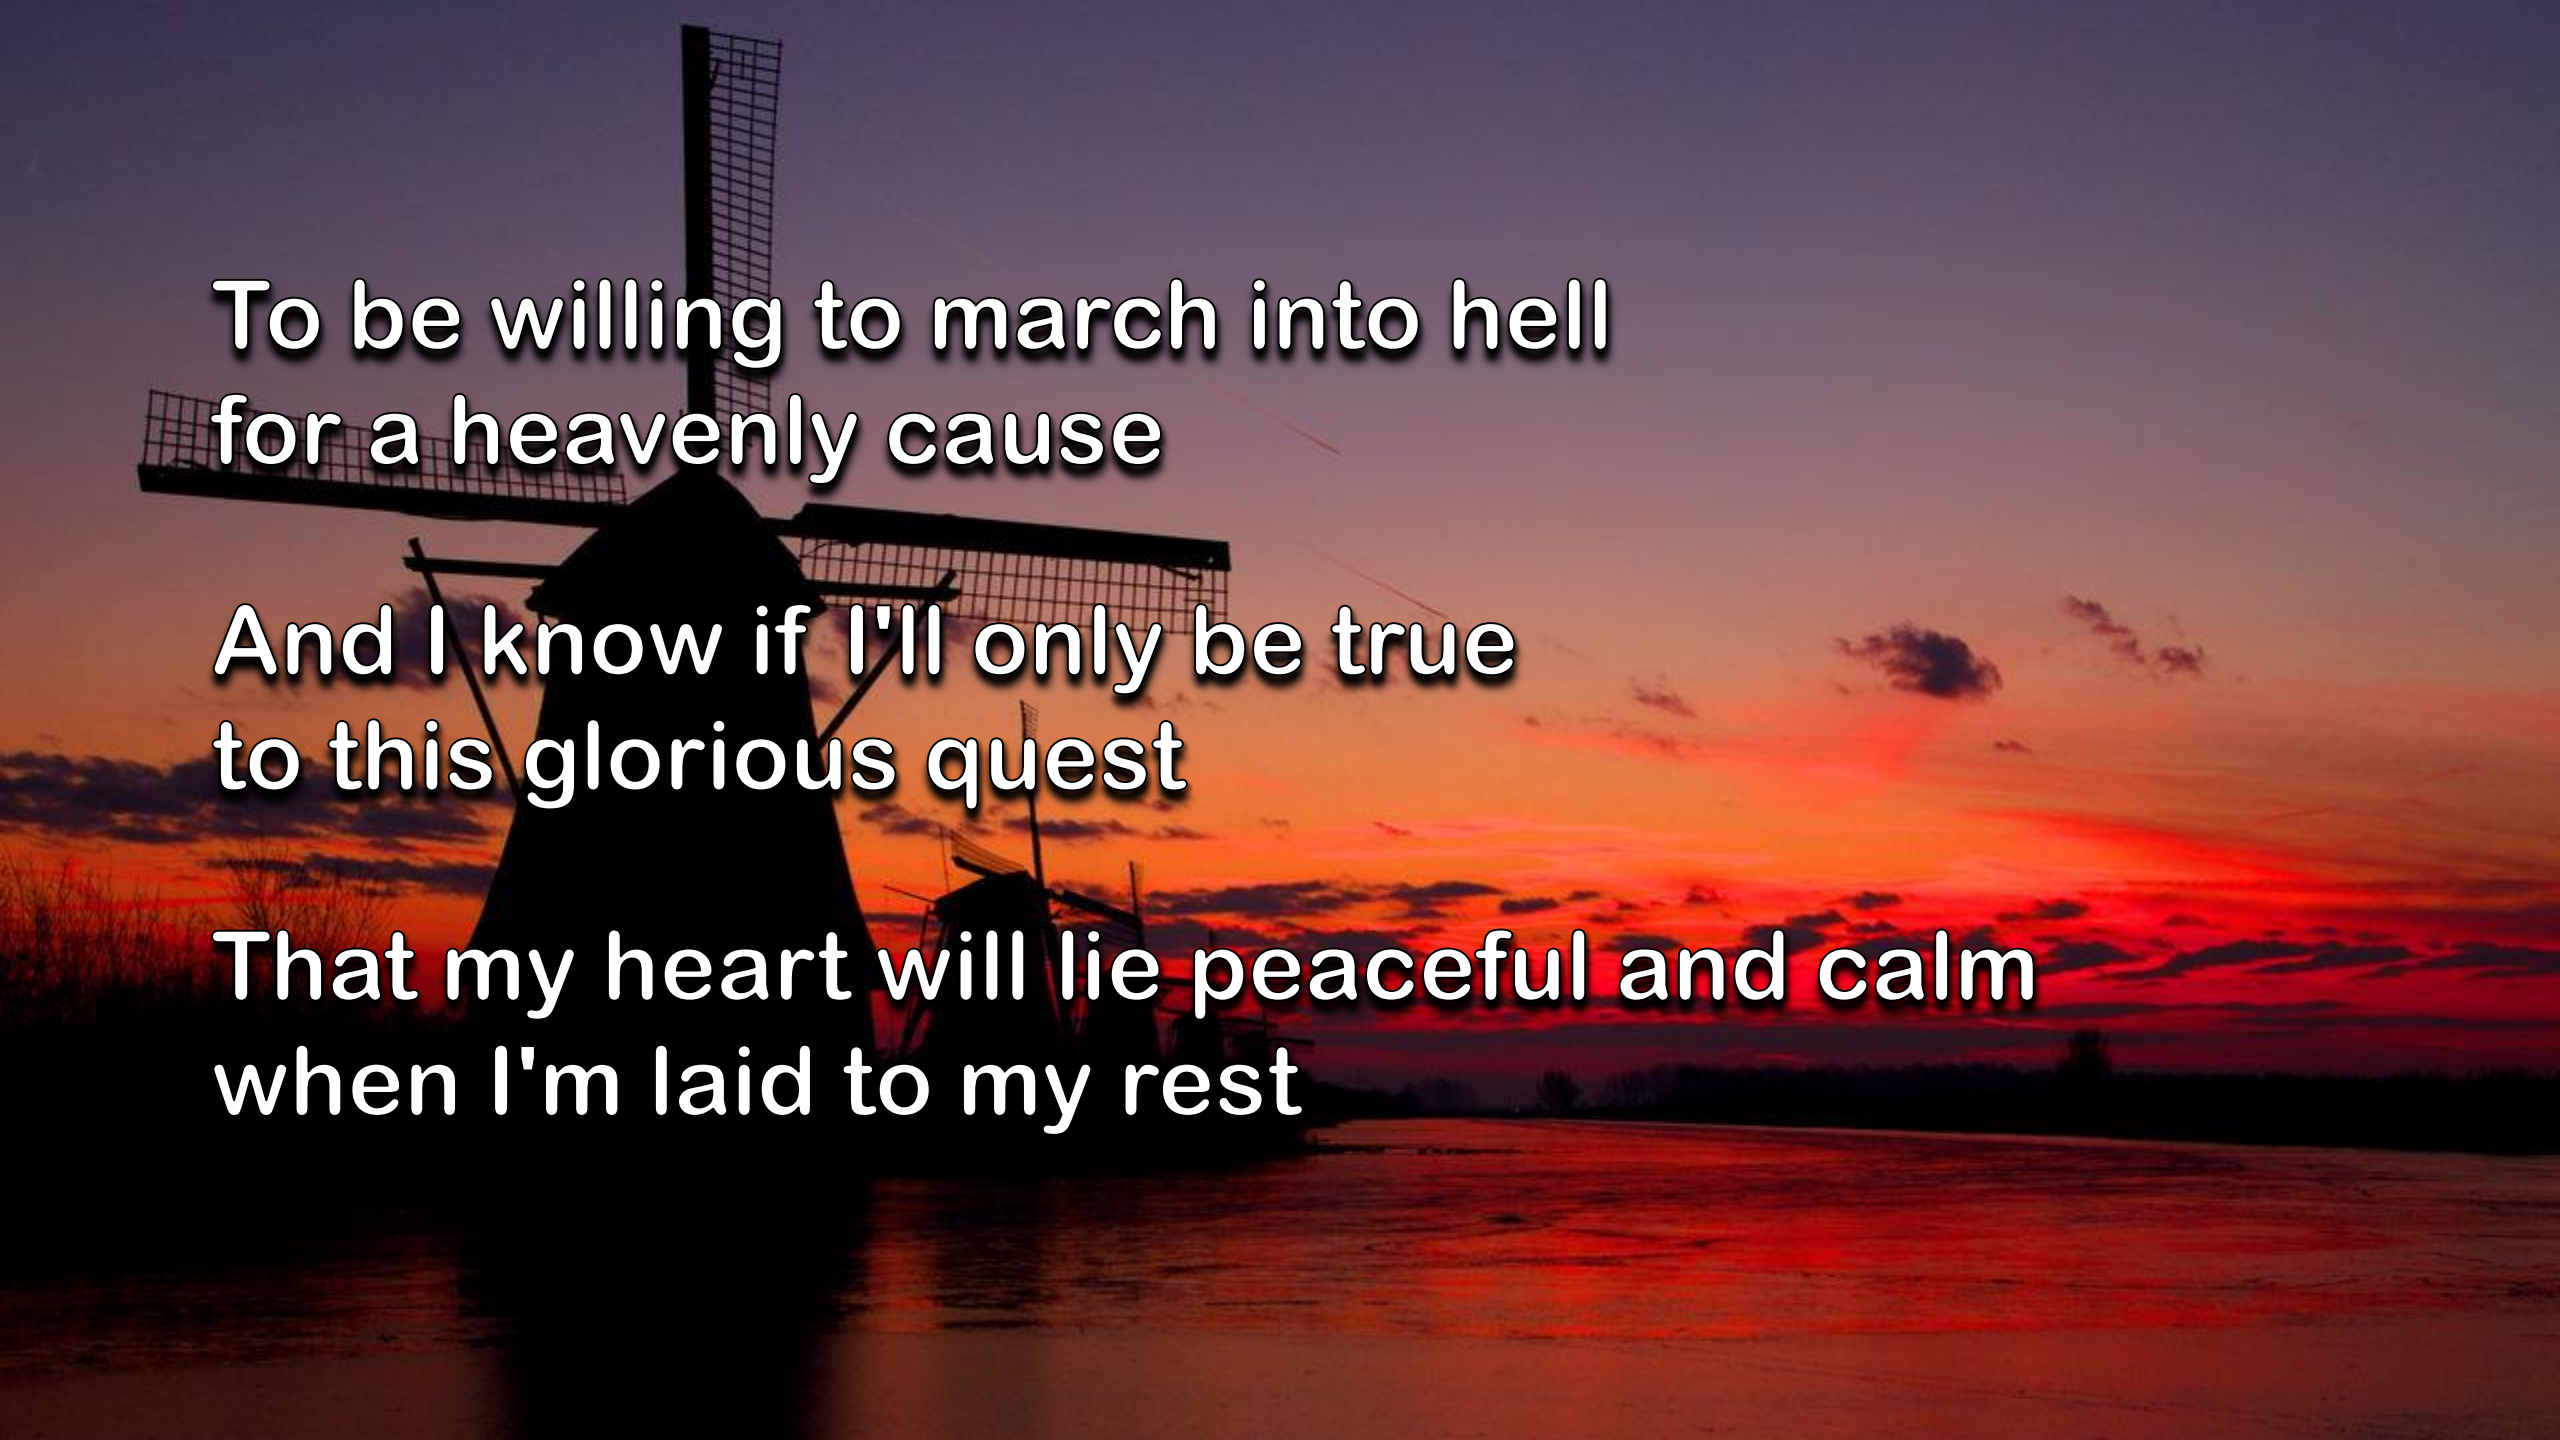

To try when your arms are too weary

To reach the unreachable star

This is my quest, to follow that star,

No matter how hopeless, no matter how far

To fight for the right without question or cause

A silhouette of a windmill stands in the foreground, its four lattice-like sails extending outwards. The background is a vibrant sunset sky, transitioning from deep purple at the top to bright orange and red near the horizon. The sun is low, casting a long, shimmering reflection on the calm water in the foreground. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

To be willing to march into hell for a heavenly cause

And I know if I'll only be true to this glorious quest

That my heart will lie peaceful and calm
when I'm laid to my rest

A silhouette of a windmill stands prominently on the left side of the frame, its four lattice-like sails extending horizontally. The background is a dramatic sunset sky, transitioning from a deep purple at the top to a vibrant orange and red near the horizon. The sun is low, casting a long, shimmering reflection on the calm water in the foreground. In the distance, another smaller windmill is visible, and the horizon line is dark with some distant trees or structures. The overall mood is one of quiet strength and perseverance.

And the world will be better for this

That one man scorned and covered with scars

Still strove with his last ounce of courage

To fight the unbeatable foe,
to reach the unreachable star

The God of the Impossible

YAHWEH

